FROM : OTR Orientation and Briefing Officer

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #24
11 June to 17 June 1958

DATE: 17 June 1958

SPECIAL BRIEFINGS

1. On 16 June a Special Briefing was given to the new [redacted] The presentation encompassed the National Security Council, the intelligence community, and the historical background of both; the flow of intelligence; and the mission, functions, and organization of CIA. The guest was accompanied by [redacted] [redacted] called to convey his and the Director's thanks for the briefing.

2. On 16 June a Special Briefing on the NSC, the IAC, the DDI, and the DDS was given--in French--to six officers of the [redacted] The group included the Vice Chief of the Service, the Chief of Operations, the Chief of Support, the Chief of Security, and the Chief of Reports. CIA personnel in attendance were [redacted] CI Staff; [redacted] escorting field officers. The session with these [redacted] was particularly exuberant.

MID-CAREER BRIEFINGS

On 12 and 13 June, two days of CIA briefings were conducted for the 25 members of FSI's current Mid-Career Course on Foreign Affairs. Presentations were given by the Messrs. Kirkpatrick, [redacted]

The presentation by Mr. [redacted] Executive Officer/WH, [redacted] designee, was somewhat disappointing. It was more concerned with policy than with intelligence. The program as a whole was very well received. [redacted]

BRIEFING OF ACSI RESERVISTS

On 11 June [redacted] gave a briefing on the intelligence community and the mission, functions, and organization of CIA to a group of five reserve intelligence officers. Major Lloyd A. Jones, ACSI, accompanied the group.
